I performed a "random" inspection at this facility today.

Comments:

Since the last inspection the owners have built an additional 8 run building. At this time it is not ready for boarding dogs. The owner will advise me when all the work is completed - building & yards - and I will come back for an inspection. I noted the owner has installed acrylic on all the doors to prevent the dogs from scratching the painted surface. This will prevent having to re paint the doors as often. I noted all the indoor and outdoor areas are clean, odor free and in good repair. The owner advised that when the new yards are graveled, the existing exercise yards will have more gravel added to them. I noted all the records meet the animal welfare requirements. I look forward to seeing the new building in it's completed stated in a few weeks.
