Narrative Explanation

Performed an annual inspection.

Since the last inspection the dog enclosures have been painted, cracks in the floor and corner of the enclosures have been sealed and are impervious to moisture.

Other areas in the shelter are still be painted as needed, but constant failures are having stainless sheeting installed.

Stainless sheeting has been installed in the puppy rooms to remedy the constant paint failure on the enclosure walls.

Stainless sheeting has also been installed on the center islands in the stray dog areas to abate paint failure.

Animals in the system but not at the facility have their picture displayed in a conspicuous location.

The facility was clean, there was no odor, and no sign of illness in the general population.

Keep up the good work of addressing the animals needs in the facility.
