Narrative Explanation

10/10/2013: All animals are being removed from kennels/cages while cleaning, no wet animal observed.

This facility has 98 animal less than last inspection.

All cat enclosures with 3 or more cats have additional litter boxes.

An area for isolation for possible sick felines has been designated AC/heat has been installed, this area will be ready for use after the renovation.

The shelter will be closed to the public for the month of November, I have received a detailed written protocol for housing the animals.

The overcrowding due to the extended hold times has been addressed. Animals that are passed the hold times will be put up for adoption, rescued , fostered or euthanized.

Humane Society has a plan in place to have CET's on staff no later than March 2014.
