Narrative Explanation, if needed

Annual inspection done today. Kennel manager Kristy Gaskins in attendance. Items in need of correction as follows.

Known to staff as A Building. 0204> The primary enclosures are showing signs of paint peeling inside and outside. There are cracks noted in a few of the kennel outside floors as well as some separation from where the outside wall meets the outside floor. Repainting/touch ups is needed, cracks and separations require filling and sealed.

Known to staff as B Building. The kennel area here is in need of repainting in some spaces. I have been told that this building is not utilized much. Some general housekeeping to ceiling fan is needed. There are a few covered galvanized fenced play/exercise areas that have rust issues. These will need to be addressed.

Known to staff as Suites. 0204> Touch up paint and seal to metal doors and frames is required.

Known to staff as Play Yards. 0204> There is a damaged 2x4 wood beam attached horizontally to 2 vertical wrapped wooden posts about 4 feet from the ground. Suggest removal if possible and wrap if it must stay. There is a tree in the middle of one of the yards. Suggest some type of wrap or fencing to prevent canine access. The wooden privacy fence in this same area will need to be blocked from access as well.

All animals on the premises appear happy and healthy. The staff here has shown much passion for what they do.

Paperwork is in compliance with the AWA.

This facility is odor free throughout and very well maintained.

I will follow up on progress with corrections in or around 60 days.
