Narrative Explanation

Random inspection performed today, facility is clean and odor free at time of inspection, and ambient temperature is within range in all housing areas. Pet shop and boarding kennel has been down sized to better accomodate the business in the economy.

0102} Veterinary Treatment records deemed not acceptable today due to a cat housed here in the shop named "Socks" that is suffering from a skin condition. When asked to see the cats records, the owner admits that none of the records are on site. All animal records, whether they are for sale or residents, must be on site with them at all times.

0210} Veterinary Care provided when needed deemed not acceptable due to a resident cat here named "Socks" with red, rashy, patchy, skin. When I asked if the cat had seen a Veterinarian, the owner said yes, and that the cat suffered from some sort of allergy. I asked which veterinarian (since none of the records were on site), and the owner gave me the contact information for Animal Hospital of Fayetteville, 910-323-1535, I called and spoke with their receptionist, who explained to me that the cat had not been in for a visit since March of 2014. He was seen on March 4th, 2014 for Bloodwork, and given antibiotics on March 8th, 2014. I advised the owner of the pet shop that the cat needed to see his veterinarian as soon as possible, once that appointment had taken place he needed to let me know, so I could follow up again with the vet's office.

0204} Primary Enclosures deemed not acceptable for surfaces impervious to moisture due to damaged/chewed FRP Board in one of the enclosures, replace FRP board in this enclosure.

Re-inspect will take place in 30 days.
