Narrative Explanation, if needed

Overall husbandry is good. Kennel was of ambient temperature. All records were intact and dogs appeared happy and content. Beds have been replaced as needed to replace damaged/chewed ones. Cement block walls are still in need of repainting. Owner's husband has been unable to address due to back injury. They have talked with someone about pouring cement in kennels and may pour to cover the bottom of the walls where paint is chipping. Owner will advise when painting and/or concrete work is started.
