Narrative Explanation

Annual inspection done today. Nancy Seevers in attendance. Corrections made from previous inspection as follows.

Back yard area remains unchanged and is not being utilized.

The #4 pen wooden shed side wall has been covered with a approved material and the wood threshold here has been replaced with concrete.

The 2 areas that the owner wanted to use as kennel space have been brought up to compliance.

The basement has been in progress to allow use of 2 spaces here for canines as well. Bob Seevers has done quite a bit of work. Painting/sealing of wooden door, new shower board put up on all walls where dogs will be. Hung a new door with dog access and painted/sealed all existing wood that could not be replaced.

There are a few things that will require attention.

All galvanized fencing that is being utilized and that is showing rust will need to be painted/sealed.

A good thorough cleaning/housekeeping to the inside basement area.

Painting touch ups in outdoor areas.

Sealing provided to the indoor flooring as well.

Owner is aware of these concerns and is making plans to rectify them. They will also be implementing some changes of their own to update preexisting animal housing. These plans and implementation of will be contingent on weather.

All canines on the premises appear happy, healthy and free from injury.
