carprofen were prescribed. Inspectors Lloyd and Blatche requested these medication records. Ms. Arledge stated these records are kept on her computer. Inspector Lloyd requested that Ms. Arledge print these records. After going inside to obtain these records, Ms. Arledge returned stating that her computer was frozen. Facility is unable to provide medication records for Dixie.

Inspectors Lloyd and Blatche were denied the ability to view the perimeter fence from outside the play yard. Ms. Arledge states she was infuriated previously when another state official was called to view the side yard and as a result she denied Lloyd and Blatche access to view the perimeter fence from outside the play yard.

The approval for today's inspection (6/15/15) is approved contingent that;

1) Ms. Arledge provides to the Animal Welfare Section office within 10 days (by June 25th, 2015) written protocols that address all sanitation issues noted at today's inspection.

2) Ms. Arledge provides to the Animal Welfare Section office within 3 days (by June 18th, 2015) all records pertaining to "Dixie".

3) Sanitation issues must be resolved by the next inspection that will occur within the next 30 days.
