Narrative Explanation, if needed

I stopped by an performed a random inspection. The shelter was in the process of being cleaned.

There were 7 kittens picked up on Friday May 3rd. The kittens appear to be about 5 weeks old. The mother Cat was not turned into the shelter. I looked into the cage and there was one of the Kittens' deceased. It appears the Kitten's were huddled up laid on top on top each other and apparently one Kitten died. I checked the body and the body was still warm so the Kitten passed away this morning. There was food and water in the kennel for the Kitten's. The staff contacted a rescue group while I was present and the remanding Kitten's will be fostered out today. It doesn't appear to be neglect just an unfortunate occurrence. The records are with-in compliance on the animals impounded.
