Narrative Explanation, if needed

This is a new facility inspection for a boarding kennel in Orange County. Owner currently has an opening date set tentatively for July 4, 2012. Construction is on-going at my visit today, however, completion is expected within the next week. Owner is currently under the process of finishing all permits and inspections required by the county. Items to be addressed before opening: Wooden privacy fence for play yards, will need to be covered w/ a a product impervious to moisture before animals are allowed in that area. Currently Occupancy Certificate set to issued later this week, as well as full power. As well as obtaining Orange County Kennel license prior to opening

No paperwork viewed today, did discuss all paperwork requirements with the owner to include vaccine history, medication forms, change of custody release forms upon check out, and emergency procedure forms.

Facility is currently approved for boarding license once all other permits and license have been obtained. I will contact the owner on the July 5th to make sure all areas have been addressed and to schedule a secondary inspection.

* Perimeter fence still needed around the facility, owner does currently have the property secure enough with main fencing, 6 month timeline issued for this project.
