Narrative Explanation

Annual inspection performed today with Shelter Manager Sabreena Protain in attendance.

This recently opened, new facility is well within compliance with the AWA (Animal Welfare Act). I find the staff to be settling into their new environment very nicely.

The shelter, which consists of 2 buildings that are connected by a breezeway and camera monitoring throughout, is very well maintained.

Animals on the premises appear to be healthy and free of injury.

Records are complete and in compliance.

The exercise and play yard areas are still a work in progress so volunteers walk the dogs daily and spend one on one time with them. This is something that they did at the old shelter as well.

I have no concerns at this time and I will return on a as needed basis.
