Narrative Explanation

I performed an inspection today. The building is over 40 years old and structurally the building appears to be in good shape. When-ever issues arise with-in the building the staff has those issues addressed. The ceiling has paint popping off in some areas. The staff has had the ceiling painted but again this is an old building. I did observe some inadequacies that need addressing on today's inspection.

0201- The staff needs to perform wire patrol on the cages. The cages have loose wiring and need to be corrected.

-0201 The kennels floors and walls have paint peeling off and the staff is repainting as needed. The paint doesn't hold so the staff has contacted Sherman Williams to have someone come out and discuss ways to keep the paint from popping up. -0201- Some of the concrete floors need to be resealed.

The temperature in the kennel area was 78*. There was no evidence of rodents in the building.

-0207- The outside yard needs to have the grass cut and the bushes trimmed backed. Before leaving the facility today the company that cuts grass pulled up.

The record on the animals housed are good.

This facility does not take strays in from the public. Part of the building is not utilized at this time because the number of animals present are low.

There is hardly any Euthanasia performed at this facility.

I will return in 45 days to perform a follow up.
