Narrative Explanation

I performed a follow up inspection. On the last inspection on 8/21/13 I found a couple of issues that need addressing. The shelter has been contacted by Sherman Williams about painting the kennel walls and floors. The shelter has the money for the work however the work has been put on hold because of a recent puppy mill bust and the bust required the use of the cages. The floors are also going to be sealed once the painting starts.

The staff has been working on fixing the wire on the cages. The staff needs to continue performing wire patrol.

The records on the animals housed are good.

I will re inspect in 60 days .
