Narrative Explanation

Annual inspection performed today with co owner Della Fitzgerald in attendance.

Items from previous inspection have been addressed as follows:

1. The back outside wall of the clinic kennels has been repaired and has no further rusting issues.

2. Window has been replaced in the Sanctuary Building.

3. The yards here at the facility site have been attended to by removal of a tree, dirt holes filled and thus the stagnant water has not been of consequence.

3. New kennels have been installed in the Sanctuary Building creating more space per primary enclosure and assisting in easier maintenance.

New items of concern are as follows:

1. Clinic Kennels > There are a few plastic raised resting cots that are showing signs of wear, tear and jagged edges. Suggest repair or replacement.

2. Continual gravel replenishment has been being done to the exercise/play yard behind the Clinic. This will remain a constant, as needed chore due to the canine traffic. Staff is much aware and providing this.

3. In regards to the yards around the Sanctuary Building, although work has been done and this is evident, there are now, although not as many as previous, new holes. In discussing this ongoing problem I find that due to the weather and unpredictably of it, this issue will be best addressed as the season changes. I will further my discussions with both Max and Della at that time and we will come up with some solutions that will hopefully rectify this recurrent issue.

All paperwork remains in compliance.
