

Corn Careers

Corn is important to many people. The production, distribution, processing, and marketing of corn involves many different careers. See if you can identify the following careers that are part of the agricultural world.

- ACCOUNTANT
- AGRONOMIST
- BOTANIST
- CHEMIST
- EQUIPMENT DEALER
- EXTENSION AGENT
- FARMER
- GROCER
- MECHANIC
- METEOROLOGIST
- MILLER
- RESEARCHER
- SEED SALESMAN
- TRUCK DRIVER

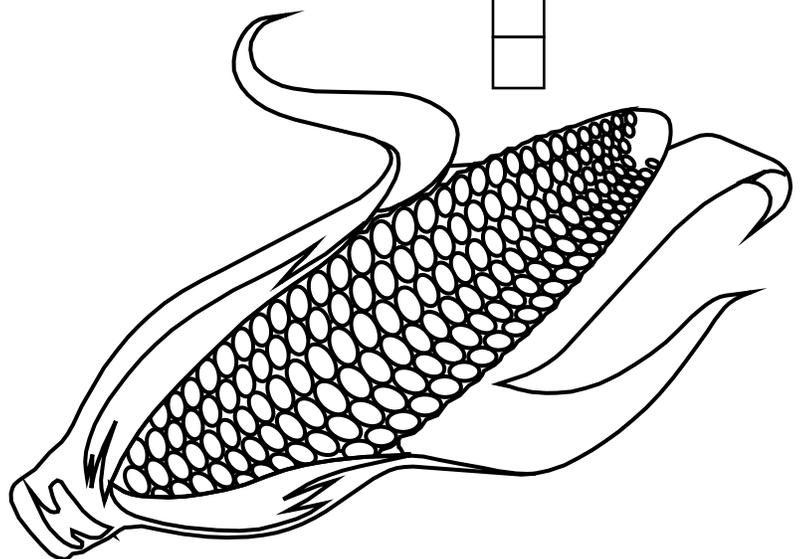

ACROSS

2. The person who forecasts the weather for the corn grower
5. A scientist who develops new and effective herbicides and pesticides for the corn farmer to use.
10. A scientist who deals with crop production and soil management.
11. The person who supplies the hybrid seed to the corn farmer.
12. The person who provides current information from university research to the corn farmer.
13. A person who keeps the financial records for the corn producer.

DOWN

1. A person who grinds the corn into flour or meal.
2. The person who repairs and maintains the corn farmers machinery.
3. A scientist who investigates future uses of corn.
4. The person who hauls the corn from the farm to the processing plant or elevator.
6. A person who sells corn food products.
7. The person who sells the tractors, planters, tillage equipment, and combines to the corn farmer.
8. The person responsible for planting, cultivating, and harvesting the corn crop.
9. A scientist who studies plants.

ANSWERS: (across) 2. Meteorologist 5. Chemist
 10. Agronomist 11. Seed Salesman 12. Extension Agent
 13. Accountant (down) 1. Miller 3. Researcher 4. Truck Driver
 6. Grower 7. Equipment Dealer 8. Farmer 9. Botanist