

North Carolina Beef Field Day

Exciting NEW approach that will enhance the effectiveness of beef research and educational efforts in the Southeast!

Showcase of the research platform through: facility tours, educational programs, trade show, and a discussion on the future of beef cattle research!

Saturday, August 23rd, 2014

Butner Beef Cattle Field Laboratory
8800 Cassam Road, Bahama, NC 27503

Participants will be able to select and participate in the topics which are most relevant to their production interest.

Registration begins at 9 AM

Programs start at 9:30 AM

Special Remarks at 3 PM

- ▶ Forages and grazing practices
- ▶ Feed efficiency evaluations
- ▶ Fescue toxicosis
- ▶ Pond ecology
- ▶ Pasture renovation
- ▶ Women and Youth in the Cattle Industry
- ▶ Summer Annual Forages
- ▶ Developments in Estrous Synchronization
- ▶ Conversion of Marginal Land to Pasture
- ▶ Bull Performance Testing Program
- ▶ Utilization of UAV Technology for forage evaluation
- ▶ Feeder calf evaluation and market steer development
- ▶ Beef Quality Assurance

For more information, please contact Butner Beef Cattle Field Lab at 919-471-6872 or the following websites:

NCDA Research Stations Homepage
<http://www.ncagr.gov/research/>

NCARS Field Day Website

<http://harvest.cals.ncsu.edu/site/WebFile/FieldDayEventsApril2014.pdf>

Butner Beef Website

<http://harvest.cals.ncsu.edu/ncars/index.cfm?pageID=5079>

NCDA Field Day Website

<http://www.ncagr.gov/Research/FieldDays.htm>