

Trainer:

CET Practical Checklist

Student:

Trainer Number:

	Competency	Pass	Fail	Comments
1	Correctly scan an animal for the presence of a microchip.
2	Correctly calculate chemical agent dosage based upon the species, age, weight and condition of the animal.
3	Correctly complete all required documentation.
4	Correctly draw the properly calculated chemical dosage into a syringe and needle of a type and size appropriate for the animal.
5	Correctly administer the chemical agent to the animal.
6	Properly perform IV and/or IP injections on dogs.
7	Properly perform IV or IP injections on cats.
8	Possess knowledge of medical procedures and drugs necessary for animal to be euthanized by intracardiac injection.
9	Demonstrate ability to verify death by lack of respiration.
10	Demonstrate ability to verify death by lack of ocular reflexes.
11	Demonstrate ability to verify death by lack of a heartbeat with a stethoscope.
12	Possess knowledge about the human health risks associated with the use of chemical agents used for euthanasia including signs and symptoms associated with accidental exposure of the CET.
13	Possess knowledge of proper first aid for a person accidentally exposed to chemical agents used for euthanasia.			