Narrative Explanation

ACO's Louie Reber and Kelley Wynn in attendance for this annual inspection.

This facility operates more as a holding facility rather than a shelter due to the fact that after the 72 hr. hold period, all animals are transferred and signed over to the county animal shelter.

The shelter here is very well maintained and looked after.

Paperwork is within compliance.

Euthanasia is not performed here.

Due to the lack of heavy canine traffic, repairs are minimal. The staff does keep up on monitoring for new issues of concern.

The small yard areas have full established grass.

The 1 feline on the premises appears happy, healthy and injury free.

As there are no concerns at this time, I will return on a as needed basis.
