Narrative Explanation, if needed

i performed a random inspection today. The shelter was being cleaned. The staff has started to replace the gates in the main kennel area. The small dog area was in the process of being cleaned. The shelter was cluttered because of the cleaning and the installation of the new kennel gates. The staff needs to develop a room just for storage. The dogs are let out once a day while their kennels are being cleaned. The shelter utilizes newspaper for resting surfaces which is acceptable.

There was information posted on the front door indicating office hours/surrender/adoption and phone numbers.

Narrative Explanation, continued

The shelter is an older building and does meet the minimum requirements to be licensed. Dr.. Head and Dr. Flood oversee the veterinary care on the animals.

There are 4 full time employees and the shelter utilizes community service workers.

I will return on a future date to see if the rest of the kennel gates have been replaced
