Johnston County, NC Code of Ordinances

ARTICLE II. - VOLUNTARY AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS

DIVISION 1. - GENERALLY

Sec. 3-25. - Title.

Sec. 3-26. - Authority.

Sec. 3-27. - Purpose.

Sec. 3-28. - Definitions.

Secs. 3-29—3-39. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-25. - Title.

[This article shall be known as and may be cited as] An ordinance of the Board of County Commissioners of Johnston County, North Carolina, entitled "voluntary agricultural district ordinance."

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 1, Art. I)

Sec. 3-26. - Authority.

The divisions and sections of this article are adopted pursuant to authority conferred by the G.S. 106-735 through 106-744 and G.S. chapter 153A.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 2, Art. II)

Sec. 3-27. - Purpose.

The purpose of this article is to promote agricultural values and the general welfare of the county and, more specifically, increase identity and pride in the agricultural community and its way of life; and encourage the economic and financial health of agriculture.

This article establishes a voluntary agricultural district program that has the following benefits for participating farmers and other county residents:

- The program creates awareness of agricultural areas within the county.
- The program informs nonfarming neighbors and potential land purchasers of the presence of agricultural activities.
- Participation in the program gives the farming community an opportunity to provide input to Johnston County Commissioners in their decisions that may affect agriculture.
- Farmer participation in the program is voluntary and the farmer may terminate his/her participation at any time.

- The program helps maintain open space and natural resources as the county's population and development expands.

- The program maintains opportunities to produce locally grown food and fiber.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 3, Art. III)

Sec. 3-28. - Definitions.

The following are defined for purposes of this article:

Advisory board: Johnston County Voluntary Agricultural District Advisory Board.

Board of commissioners: Johnston County Board of Commissioners.

Chairperson: Chairperson of the Johnston County Voluntary Agricultural District Advisory Board.

District: Voluntary agricultural district as established by this article.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 4, Art. IV)

Secs. 3-29—3-39. - Reserved.

DIVISION 2. - AGRICULTURAL ADVISORY BOARD

Sec. 3-40. - Creation.

Sec. 3-41. - Membership.

Sec. 3-42. - Membership requirements.

Sec. 3-43. - Tenure.

Sec. 3-44. - Vacancies.

Sec. 3-45. - Removal.

Sec. 3-46. - Funding.

Sec. 3-47. - Advisory board procedures.

Sec. 3-48. - Duties.

Secs. 3-49—3-64. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-40. - Creation.

The board of commissioners shall establish an agricultural advisory board to implement the provisions of this program.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-A.)

Sec. 3-41. - Membership.

The advisory board shall consist of no less than seven and no more than nine members appointed by the board of commissioners with an effort to have the broadest geographic representation and commodity interests as possible.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-B.)

Sec. 3-42. - Membership requirements.

(1) Each advisory board member shall be a citizen of Johnston County.

(2) At least five of the members shall be actively engaged in farming. The five members actively engaged in farming shall meet the eligibility criteria for the Johnston County Voluntary Agricultural District Program and be selected for appointment by the board of commissioners from the names of individuals recommended to the board of commissioners by a representative from the Johnston County Soil and Water Conservation District, the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service, the cooperative extension service, the farm services agency county committee and the Johnston County Farm Bureau. The additional members shall have special interest, experience, or education in agriculture and/or rural land preservation.

(3) At least one of the advisory board members actively engaged in farming shall be nominated by the Johnston County Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Supervisors.

(4) All members shall be selected for appointment by the Johnston County Board of Commissioners as stated above.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-C.)

Sec. 3-43. - Tenure.

The initial board is to consist of two appointees for terms of one year; two appointees for terms of two years; and three appointees for terms of three years. Members shall serve at the pleasure of the board of commissioners. Following the expiration of the initial term, all appointments thereafter shall be for terms of three years. Length of tenure shall follow Johnston County policy.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-D.)

Sec. 3-44. - Vacancies.

(1) Any vacancy on the advisory board is to be filled by the board of commissioners after consultation by the advisory board for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(2) Any advisory board member may voluntarily resign by submitting a 30-day written notice to the advisory board.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-E.)

Sec. 3-45. - Removal.

Any member of the advisory board may be removed by the board of commissioners with cause upon a vote of the commissioners. The advisory board may request in writing to the board of commissioners that a member be removed for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. The membership of any advisory board member who is absent for three consecutive meetings may be subject to removal, unless such absence is excused by the entire advisory board for good and sufficient cause.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-F.)

Sec. 3-46. - Funding.

The per diem compensation, if any, of the members of the advisory board may be fixed by the board of commissioners and funds may be appropriated to the advisory board to perform its duties.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-G.)

Sec. 3-47. - Advisory board procedures.

(1) Chairperson. The advisory board shall elect a chairperson and vice-chairperson each year at its first meeting of the fiscal year. The chairperson shall preside over all regular or special meetings of the advisory board. In the absence or disability of the chairperson, the vice-chairperson shall preside and shall exercise all the powers of the chairperson. Additional officers may be elected as needed.

(2) Jurisdiction. The advisory board may adopt rules of procedure not inconsistent with this article or with other provisions of state law.

(3) Advisory board year. The advisory board shall use the Johnston County fiscal year as its meeting year, July 1 through June 30.

(4) Meetings. Meetings of the advisory board shall be held at the call of the chairperson and at such other times as the advisory board may specify in its rules of procedure or upon the request of at least a majority of the advisory board membership. A meeting shall be held at least annually and notice of any meetings to the members shall be in writing, unless otherwise agreed to by all advisory board members. Meetings dates and times shall be posted as far in advance as possible at the meeting site and by advertisement in local newspapers or by other means of public dissemination of the meeting dates as may be agreed upon by at least a majority of the advisory board membership consistent with meetings law requirement. All meetings shall be open to the public.

(5) Majority vote. All issues shall be decided by a majority vote of the members of the advisory board, except as otherwise stated herein.

(6) Records. The advisory board shall keep minutes of the proceedings and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be filed in the office of the advisory board or its administrative agent and shall be a public record.

(7) Administrative. The Johnston Soil and Water Conservation District office will serve the voluntary agricultural district advisory board for record keeping, correspondence, application procedures under this ordinance, and whatever services the board needs to complete its duties.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-H.)

Sec. 3-48. - Duties.

The advisory board shall:

(1) Review and approve applications for qualified farmland and voluntary agricultural districts and make recommendations concerning the establishment and modification of agricultural districts;

(2) Conduct public hearings pursuant to division 7 of this article;

(3) Advise the board of commissioners on projects, programs, or issues affecting the agricultural economy or activities within the county that will affect agricultural districts;

(4) Review and make recommendations concerning proposed amendments to this article.

The advisory board may:

(1) Develop a draft countywide farmland protection plan as defined in G.S. 106-744 (e)(1) for presentation to the board of commissioners;

(2) Study additional methods of farmland preservation and make recommendations to the board of commissioners; and

(3) Perform other agricultural related tasks or duties assigned by the board of commissioners.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 5, Art. V-I.)

Secs. 3-49—3-64. - Reserved.

DIVISION 3. - CREATION OF VOLUNTARY AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS

Sec. 3-65. - Implementation.

Sec. 3-66. - Education.

Sec. 3-67. - Addition and withdrawal.

Secs. 3-68—3-74. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-65. - Implementation.

In order to implement the purposes stated in section 3-27, this program provides for the creation of voluntary agricultural districts which meet the following standards:

(1) The district shall contain a minimum of 25 contiguous acres of qualified farmland; or

(2) The district shall contain three or more qualified farms within one-half mile of each other.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 6, Art. VI-A.)

Sec. 3-66. - Education.

The county may take such action as it deems appropriate through the advisory board or other entities or individuals to encourage the formation of the district and to further its purposes and objectives, including the implementation of a public information program to reasonably inform landowners of the agricultural district program.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 6, Art. VI-B.)

Sec. 3-67. - Addition and withdrawal.

(1) Qualifying farmland may be added at any time to the district.

(2) In the event that one or more participants in the district withdraw and the acreage in the district becomes less than the minimum acreage required or results in the remaining land being noncontiguous, a voluntary agricultural district will continue to exist so long as there is one qualifying farm.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 6, Art. VI-C.)

Secs. 3-68—3-74. - Reserved.

DIVISION 4. - CERTIFICATION AND QUALIFICATION OF FARMLAND

Sec. 3-75. - Requirements.

Secs. 3-76—3-89. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-75. - Requirements.

To secure county certification as qualifying farmland, a farm must:

(1) Be engaged in agriculture as that word is defined in G.S. § 106-581.1; as follows:

N.C.G.S. § 106-581.1. Agriculture defined.

For purposes of this Article, the terms "agriculture", "agricultural", and "farming" refer to all of the following:

(1) The cultivation of soil for production and harvesting of crops, including but not limited to fruits, vegetables, sod, flowers and ornamental plants.

(2) The planting and production of trees and timber.

(3) Dairying and the raising, management, care, and training of livestock, including horses, bees, poultry, and other animals for individual and public use, consumption, and marketing.

(4) Aquaculture as defined in G.S. 106-758.

(5) The operation, management, conservation, improvement, and maintenance of a farm and the structures and buildings on the farm, including building and structure repair, replacement, expansion, and construction incident to the farming operation.

(6) When performed on the farm, "agriculture", "agricultural", and "farming" also include the marketing and selling of agricultural products, agritourism, the storage and use of materials for agricultural purposes, packing, treating, processing, sorting, storage, and other activities performed to add value to crops, livestock, and agricultural items produced on the farm, and similar activities incident to the operation of a farm. (1991, c. 81, s. 1; 2005-390, s. 18; 2006-255, s. 6.)

(2) Be certified by the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service as being a farm on which at least two-thirds of the land is composed of soils that:

a. Are best suited for providing food, seed, fiber, forage, timber, forestry products, horticultural crops, oil seed crops, livestock and poultry;

b. Have good soil qualities;

c. Are favorable for all major crops common to the county where the land is located;

d. Have a favorable growing season; and

e. Receive the available moisture needed to produce high yields for an average of eight out of ten years;

OR

Have been actively used in agricultural, horticultural or forestry operations as defined by G.S. 105-277.2 (1, 2, 3) during each of the five previous years, measured from the date on which the determination must be made as to whether the land in questions qualifies.

(3) Be managed, if highly erodible land exists on the farm, in accordance with the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service defined erosion-control practices that are addressed to said highly-erodible land; and

(4) Be the subject of a conservation agreement, as defined in G.S. 121-35, between the county and the owner of such land that prohibits non-farm use or development of such land for a period of at least ten years, except for the creation of not more than three lots that meet applicable county zoning and subdivision regulations.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 7, Art. VII-A.; Ord. of 12-3-2012)

Secs. 3-76—3-89. - Reserved.

DIVISION 5. - APPLICATION, APPROVAL, AND APPEAL PROCEDURE

Sec. 3-90. - Application procedure.

Sec. 3-91. - Approval process.

Sec. 3-92. - Appeal.

Secs. 3-93—3-124. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-90. - Application procedure.

(1) A landowner may apply to participate in the program by making application to the chairperson of the advisory board or a designated staff person. The application shall be on forms provided by the advisory board. The application to participate in a district may be filed with the certification for qualifying farmland.

(2) A conservation agreement to sustain, encourage, and promote agriculture must be executed by the landowner and recorded with the Johnston County Register of Deeds. Permitted uses include agriculture, horticulture, crops, livestock, forestry and outdoor recreation.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 8, Art. VIII-A.)

Sec. 3-91. - Approval process.

(1) Upon submission of the application to the advisory board, the advisory board shall meet within 90 days to approve or disapprove the application. The chairperson shall notify the applicant by first class mail of approval or disapproval of participation in the district.

(2) Upon receipt of an application, the chairperson will forward copies immediately to the following offices which shall be asked to provide comments, if any, to the advisory board prior to the date set for the advisory board to vote on the application:

- (a) The Johnston County Tax Assessor;
- (b) The Johnston [County] Soil and Water Conservation District; and
- (c) The USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 8, Art. VIII-B.)

Sec. 3-92. - Appeal.

If an application is denied by the advisory board, the petitioner shall have 30 days to appeal the decision to the board of commissioners. Such appeal shall be presented in writing. The decision of the board of commissioners is final.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 8, Art. VIII-C.)

Secs. 3-93—3-124. - Reserved.

DIVISION 6. - REVOCATION AND RENEWAL OF CONSERVATION AGREEMENT

Sec. 3-125. - Revocation.

Sec. 3-126. - Renewal.

Secs. 3-127—3-144. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-125. - Revocation.

By providing 30 days' advance written notice to the advisory board, a landowner of qualifying farmland may revoke the conservation agreement or the advisory board may revoke the same conservation agreement based on noncompliance by the landowner, subject to the same provisions as contained in division 5 for appeal of denials. Such revocation shall result in loss of qualifying farm status and loss of eligibility to participate in the district. Absent noncompliance by the landowner, neither the advisory board nor the board of commissioners shall revoke any conservation agreement prior to its expiration.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 9, Art. IX-A.)

Sec. 3-126. - Renewal.

Conservation agreements shall be deemed automatically renewed for an additional term of ten years, unless either the advisory board or the landowner gives written notice to the contrary no later than 30 days prior to the termination date.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 9, Art. IX-B.)

Secs. 3-127—3-144. - Reserved.

DIVISION 7. - PUBLIC HEARINGS

Sec. 3-145. - Purpose.

Sec. 3-146. - Procedure.

Secs. 3-147—3-159. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-145. - Purpose.

Pursuant to G.S 106-740, which provides that no state or local public agency or governmental unit may formally initiate any action to condemn any interest in qualifying farmland within the district until such agency or unit has requested the advisory board to hold a public hearing on the proposed condemnation.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 9, Art. IX-A.)

Sec. 3-146. - Procedure.

(1) Upon receiving a request, the advisory board shall publish notice describing the proposed action in the appropriate newspapers of Johnston County within five business days of the request, and will in the same notice notify the public of a public hearing on the proposed condemnation, to be held within ten days of receipt of the request.

(2) The advisory board shall meet to review:

(a) Whether the need for the project has been satisfactorily established by the agency or unit of government involved, including a review of any fiscal impact analysis conducted by the agency involved; and

(b) Whether there are alternatives to the proposed action that have less impact and are less disruptive to the agricultural activities of the district within which the proposed action is to take place.

(3) The advisory board may consult with the Johnston Soil and Water Conservation District, the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service, Johnston County Cooperative Extension Service and any other individuals, agencies, or organizations deemed by the advisory board to be necessary for its review of the proposed action.

(4) Within 30 days after the hearing, the advisory board shall make a report containing its findings and recommendations regarding the proposed action. The report shall be made available to the public prior to its being conveyed to the decision-making body of the agency proposing the acquisition.

(5) There will be a period of ten days allowed for public comment on the report of the advisory board.

(6) After the ten-day period for public comment has expired, the advisory board shall submit a final report containing all of its findings and recommendations regarding the proposed action to the decision-making body of the agency proposing the acquisition.

(7) The total time period, from the day that a request for a hearing has been received to the day that a final report is issued to the decision-making body of the agency proposing the acquisition, shall not exceed 60 days. If the agency agreed to an extension, the agency and the advisory board shall mutually agree upon a schedule to be set forth in writing and made available to the public.

(8) Pursuant to G.S. 106-740, the board of commissioners shall not permit any formal initiation of condemnation by local agencies while the proposed condemnation is properly before the advisory board.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 10, Art. X-B.)

Sec. 3-160. - Record notice of proximity to voluntary agricultural district.

Sec. 3-161. - Signage.

Sec. 3-162. - Maps.

Secs. 3-163—3-174. - Reserved.

Sec. 3-160. - Record notice of proximity to voluntary agricultural district.

(1) Procedure. upon certification of qualifying farmland and designation of real property as a district, the title to that qualifying farmland and real property, which is contained in the Johnston County Land Records System shall include a notice reasonably calculated to alert a person researching the title of a particular tract that such tract is located within one-half mile of the voluntary agriculture district.

(2) Limit of liability. In no event shall the county or any of its officers, employees, members of the advisory board, or agents be held liable in damages for any misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance occurring in good faith in connection with the duties or obligations imposed by this article.

(3) No cause of action. In no event shall any cause of action arise out of the failure of a person researching the title of a particular tract to report to any person the proximity of the tract to a qualifying farm or voluntary agriculture district as defined in this article.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 11, Art. XI-A.)

Sec. 3-161. - Signage.

Signs identifying approved agricultural district membership may be placed along major roads that pass through or next to those districts. Members of the agricultural district may place signs on their individual farms denoting their agricultural district membership. Placement of signage shall be coordinated with the North Carolina Department of Transportation and in accordance with the Johnston County Land Development Code.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 11, Art. XI-B.)

Sec. 3-162. - Maps.

Maps identifying approved agricultural districts shall be provided to the following agencies or offices:

- (1) Planning department;
- (2) Register of deeds;
- (3) Johnston Soil and Water Conservation District;
- (4) North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service; and
- (5) Any other such agency or office the advisory board deems appropriate.

Sec. 3-210. - Duty of the advisory board.

It shall be the duty of the advisory board to advise the board of commissioners or the agency or office to which the board of commissioners delegates authority to oversee county land-use planning on the status, progress, and activities of the county's agricultural district program and to also coordinate the formation and maintenance of the agricultural district with the county's land-use planning activities and the county's land-use plan if one currently exists at the time this article is enacted or when one is formed.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 14, Art. XIV-A.)

Sec. 3-211. - Posting of notice.

The following notice, of a size and form suitable for posting, shall be posted in the office of the register of deeds and any other agency the advisory board deems necessary:

Johnston County has established a Voluntary Agricultural District to increase awareness and help protect agricultural lands and activities. The District has been developed and mapped by the county to inform all purchasers of real property that certain agricultural and forestry activities, including but not limited to: pesticide spraying, manure spreading, machinery and truck operation, livestock operations, sawing, and other common farming activities may occur in the District any time during the day or night. Maps and information on the location and establishment of the District can be obtained from the Johnston Soil and Water Conservation District office, or the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service.

(Ord. of 5-1-2006, § 14, Art. XIV-B.)

Sec. 3-212. - Growth corridors.

At such time as the county might establish designated growth corridors, agricultural district membership will not be permitted in the designated growth corridors, as delineated on the official county planning map, without the approval of the board of commissioners. District members located in growth corridors designated after the effective date of this program may remain, but shall not be expanded within the growth corridor area without the approval of the board of commissioners.
