NOTICE OF WARNING

We have an investigative case report showing that you violated the North Carolina Compulsory Meat Inspection Law. This reported violation was discussed with you on May 25, 2016. Specifically, our investigation revealed that you had processed, stored, transported, offered for sale and sold misbranded/non-inspected fully cooked fried pork skins to El Charrito of Taylorsville and other retail stores, in North Carolina for the sole purpose of resale to the general public. In a signed statement dated May 25, 2016 you stated that you processed, stored, transported, offered for sale and sold misbranded/non-inspected meat products to the afore mentioned retail stores for approximately six (6) months.

Please be advised that the sale of misbranded and/or non-inspected meat products is a violation of North Carolina General Statute (N.C.G.S.) §106-549.23 with civil and/or criminal penalties. Please be advised that you will not receive any further warning with regard to this violation. If you should continue to sell misbranded and/or non-inspected meat products, we will pursue legal action against you to invoke the penalties associated with these continued violations. I certainly hope this expensive action will not be necessary. An officer from this department will visit you periodically to verify compliance.

Sincerely,

W. Alan Wade
State Director
