

By allowing the applicant to submit this application for the funding of an agricultural conservation easement on the property, the landowner hereby expresses the good faith intention to preserve the property for the production of food, fiber, and other agricultural products.

---

Farm/Project name as it appears on application

---

Landowner's or owning entity's name as it appears on application

---

Landowner's or owning entity's signature and date

---

Applicant organization as it appears on application

---

Applicant organization representative's name as it appears on application

---

Applicant organization representative's signature and date