<td>I went to perform a random inspection today upon arriving at 1034 tree line parkway the address listed for critters and creatures, the business was not at this location. I called the phone number listed on the prior report and was advised that the business had relocated to weeksville nc. I proceeded to the new location, the employee working that the business moved 2 months ago. I went ahead and performed an inspection. The only inadequacy I observed was the following: #7: The wood needs to be removed that is located under the puppy crates. There needs to be a material installed that is impervious to moisture. Everything else looks good. I am leaving the package that contains the application and veterinary care form. These need to be filled out and send to our office. Mr. Enking to send to a change of address.</td>
