There are no issues in the Cat isolation today, The room is clean and odor free.
The grounds around the 10 chamber are clean of any first or old feces.
All dogs and cats in all areas of the shelter have water. Management stated the Pit Bulls in quarantine are now being fed more than once a day. These dog’s condition looks better today. The backbone and hipbone are not as prominent. Shelter director has ordered larger water containers which can be attached to the fence to prevent spillage. The situation with long term housing for these dogs is being discussed with the legal authorities.
Shelf will only use the water bottles for cats who show they are drinking from them.
A sign is now present on the Cat isolation room so all employees will know to check this room for cats.
Today the shelter personnel were able to attend to all the shelter animals needs as an extra person from the county officers came in to answer the phone. Management understands the need for assistance with the office duties as well as the shelter duties.
Today the shelter is clean, odor free, no visible signs of illness noted.
