<td>I conducted a follow-up inspection on 6/14/07. On the previous inspection on 4/17/07, there were some issues that need addressing. Some of the issues are being worked on. The shelter is in the process of completing the painting of the walls. The person who does the painting is painting the adoption center wall but it is to come and paint the shelter. Another issue was some kennels were needing to repair or replace kennel gates. This is being done. The floor still have some cracks, but it is in the process of sealing. The building is over 30 years old.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>I observed no roosting problems in the kennel area. However, there was some evidence that a rabbit is being cared for. The rabbit feed was open, and there were droppings around the crate. While I was inspecting, the employee put the food up in a container. The examination is scheduled for next week.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>The animals at the shelter right now looked good. There was clean water in the pens. The records had all the correct information. The Vet Treatment records were good. The shelter is making progress of improving the facility.</td>
