Acting pursuant to NCGS § 19A-40, Dr. Patricia Norris, Director, Animal Welfare Section ("AWS"), North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services ("NCDA&CS") makes the following:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. At all times pertinent to this matter Classy Critters Pet Resort and Spa ("the kennel"), owned and operated by Pamela Byars, was a boarding kennel licensed pursuant to NCGS § 19A-28.
2. On August 6, 2025, AWS Veterinary Program Specialists Christie Shore and Chris Bradley ("Inspectors Shore and Bradley") conducted a Facility Compliance Inspection ("FCI") at the kennel. The findings for the FCI included:
  - a. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0102(1), the kennel owner stated that the 2 dogs comingling at the kennel at the time of this FCI had been at the kennel on August 5, 2025 for daycare. Review of the sign in/out sheet for August 4, 2025 did not show that these dogs had been signed in or out. This violation was previously cited in the October 18, 2023 and March 31, 2025 FCI reports;
  - b. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0102(3), the kennel failed to maintain the required documentation for medications administered on July 31 and August, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, 2025. This violation was previously cited in the March 31, 2025 FCI report;
  - c. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0102(4), the kennel failed to create or update records for the administration of medications at the time of the administration;
  - d. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0102(5), the kennel failed to document the escape of the dog named Kota on July 30, 2025 in the incident log for the kennel. The requirement to maintain an incident log with the details of the incident had previously been discussed with this kennel owner by the AWS Inspectors. In addition, Inspector Shore had previously sent 2 emails out to the kennels she inspected notifying them of this requirement;
  - e. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0102(6), the kennel failed to notify AWS of Kota's escape within 48 hours of the incident;
  - f. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0201(d)(4), the kennel failed to store clean laundry/bedding in cabinets or sealed containers;

- g. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0201(m), when discussing Kota's escape, the kennel owner stated that she had just ordered locks for the new kennels so that dogs could not lift the gate latch and escape. Inspectors Shore and Bradley requested a copy of the invoice to verify the order. The kennel owner later admitted that she had the locks for the new kennels all along and that they had come with the kennels;
- h. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0203(h), the kennel failed to provide a suitable method of drainage so that the standing water in the turf exercise yards was adequately drained;
- i. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0204(a), the kennel failed to provide surfaces in the animal enclosures that were impervious to moisture. This violation was previously cited in the March 31, 2025 FCI report;
- j. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0204(b), the kennel failed to replace or cover damaged wood in the door framing at the back door of the new building so that the animals did not have access to wood;
- k. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0204(f), the kennel failed to provide inner fencing of the outside exercise yards that was a minimum height of 5 feet;
- l. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0204(g), the kennel failed to construct primary enclosures to prevent their escape. The kennel owner failed to use the locks she had in her possession to prevent the escape of Kota. When Kota escaped he caused a traffic accident, and he was mildly injured when he was hit by a car;
- m. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0207(a), the kennel failed to properly clean enclosures twice daily as 4 of the outdoor runs had old feces on the turf; and
- n. In violation of 02 NCAC 52J .0209(2), the kennel failed to yearly renew the comingling agreements for the two large dogs in the back area. A review of their records showed that these agreements were dated 2014 for one dog and 2017 for the other dog. This violation was cited in the October 18, 2023 FCI report.

CONCLUSIONS

To the extent that the Findings of Fact contain Conclusions of Law, or that the Conclusions of Law are Findings of Fact, they should be so considered without regard to the given labels. Based on the findings of this investigation, AWS concludes that the kennel violated the following provisions:
